

TENNESSEE MASTER

The 2021 Fall Master Beef Course will begin in October with in-person session and field day (See schedule below). For those uncomfortable with in-person sessions, an online component will be available as well (be sure to request more information). This series will focus on the fundamental principles for managing beef cattle. The registration fee of $100 covers training, field day attendance, materials, cap, farm sign, lunch, and qualification for TAEP funds. All participants should have up to date Beef Quality Assurance (BQA) prior to taking the Master Beef Course.
